

Family Day Celebrations (14th February, 2016)

Marking the end of week-long celebrations of Basant week, MAIMS organized the family day on 14th February, 2016. It was an occasion for the families of trustees and employees of MATES to get together and interact with one another. In an attempt to make the tete-a-tete as informal and as friendly as possible, the family day celebrations were organized on an open ground, amidst various food stalls of chatpati chat, tikkis, sugarcane juice, and south Indian delicacies making it convenient for both young and old to help themselves as and when they liked.

Children too were spoilt for choice with an complete gaming section in place with slides, swings, shooting games, and tattoo stalls to keep them engaged. The celebrations had an interesting mix of magic show, poetry recitation by kids, draw of lots, and games for all.

The day ended with an engaging talk by Shri Prem Chand Goel ji, author of many books on Indian families, who reiterated the long forgotten age old Indian values and habits that has kept Indian family system strong to this day.

Dr. Nand Kishore ji Garg and Shri Prem Sagar ji Goel graced the occasion.
