

REPORT ON EXPERT GUEST LECTURE ON MEDIATION & NEGOTIATION

19 DECEMBER 2020

An Expert Guest Lecture was organised by Ms. Purnima Gupta, Assistant Professor, MAIMS, Department of Law & Legal Studies for 5th semester students Both Sec- A and B. The expert for the lecture was Ms. Nidhi Tilak Raj, Advocate and Mediator in District courts and High Courts.

She explained the concept of mediation, types of mediation and shared her practical experience as a trained mediator, how the case is being referred from the court to mediators and described the rigid and adamant attitude of conflicting parties towards each other over various issues that needs to be amicably resolved. The role of mediator comes where they have to bring both the parties at a common platform to solve their disputes amicably.
