I. NOTE FROM THE TEAM NEWSLETTER

Hello Readers,

We are there with yet another issue of the Newsletter of the Department of Law, “Nyayik Darpan” covering the various activities of the Department. The most important event of this trimester was the signing of MOU with the prestigious Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Law University, Sonapat. This association would definitely bring fruitful results for the Institute and for the students. Our routine events have taken place like the second National Moot Court Competition showing that our Department is slowly on the path of maturity.

It is an attempt by us to compile the various events and we are hopeful that you enjoy it.

Thank You

Editorial Team, Nyayik Darpan

11th November, 2021 was a red letter day in the history of Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies when a Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the two institutions. Under the New Education Policy of the Government of India, an interdisciplinary approach as well as close cooperation among the educational institutions has been necessitated. The result was the signing of MOU with B.R. Ambedkar Law University, Sonapat.

The MOU was signed in the presence of Prof.(Dr.) Viney Kapoor Mehra, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of B.R. Ambedkar Law University, and Prof.(Dr.) S.K.Garg, Director General MAIMS. The function was graced by the presence of dignitaries like Dr. Amit Kumar, Registrar; Dr. Sukhvinder Singh, Mr. Rajnish Gupta, Secretary MATES; Prof. (Dr.) G.P.Govil, Advisor MATES; Prof.(Dr.)Ravi Kumar Gupta, Director, MAIMS and Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Principal, Department of Law, MAIMS

III. ORIENTATION PROGRAM FOR THE NEWLY ADMITTED STUDENTS OF B.A.LL.B & B.B.A.LL.B (2021-26 BATCH), 20TH OCTOBER, 2021

An orientation program was organized on Wednesday 20th October 2021, from 12 Noon to 2 PM in the MATES Auditorium by the Department of Law, for the newly admitted students of BALLB and BALLB stream of 2021-2026 batch. Students came along with their parents. The program started with the “Saraswati Vandana lighting of the lamps and felicitation of the guests .

In his Welcome address Prof. (Dr.) S.K.Garg, Director General, MAIMS acquainted the audience with the Department of Law and MAIMS. He explained in detail about the various activities conducted by the department and highlighted the possible avenues of employment after completing the study of Law. He insisted on interdisciplinary studies which has been suggested by the New Education Policy of the Government of India.

Thereafter final year students Abhishek Vats and Deeksha Chug presented their experiences of four years spent in the Institute. Abdus Samad Ansari, student of fourth year BALLB recited a beautiful poem composed by our ex -Prime Minister, late Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee entitled “Kadam Mila Kar Chalna Hoga”

Guest of Honour of the event, Mr. Hemant Batra ,Commercial and Public Policy Lawyer (SAARC) and Vice-President of SAARC (Law) addressed the august gathering and insisted on the habit of reading books. He asked the students to always remain ahead of artificial intelligence. Emphasizing that a lawyer remains a student throughout his life, he advised the students to always follow the path of morality and read as much as possible.

Prof. (Dr.) A.P. Singh, Dean USLLS, GGSIPU was also the Guest of Honour , asked the students to have command over language because a lawyer is supposed to have good oration and communication skills. He also asked the newly admitted students to shed their ego if they wanted to succeed in life. He also insisted upon the virtues of morality and nobility.

The Chief Guest of the event was Honourable Mr. Justice, Chander Shekhar , former Judge, Delhi High Court and present Chairperson of REAT, Delhi and Chandigarh. He in his address insisted upon the fixation of aim and then immense hard work for the achievement of that aim. He also said that extempore speaking and alertness of mind were some of the qualities of a legal professional.

The event also witnessed the release of the Placement Brochure for the Batch of 2017-2022. Apart from the release of the Placement Brochure, a Power point Presentation depicting the various committees of the Department of Law MAIMS was shown to the audience.

At the end, the vote of thanks was given by Dr. Nand Kishore Garg, Founder Chairman and Chief Advisor MATES and Chancellor of Maharaja Agrasen University, Baddi (H.P.) He stated that the Institute was already ranked second amongst the colleges affiliated by GGSIPU and that it was working very hard to attain the ace position. Addressing the future legal and judicial professionals he said that the early dispensation of cases should be the main motive of them when they join the legal profession. The new technology would definitely help in making the legal process faster, he said. He also advised the students to follow the path of morality

The program was also graced by the benign presence of Prof. (Dr.) G.P.Govil, Advisor, MATES, Prof.(Dr.) Ravi Kumar Gupta, Director MAIMS and Prof.(Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Principal, Department of Law,MAIMS. The program ended with the singing of the National Anthem.

The entire program was organized and conducted by the Organizing Committee headed by Dr. Praveen Kumar Gupta, Head , Department of Law; Dr. Nisha Dhanraj Dewani, Associate Professor and Ms. Aarushi Agrawal, Assistant Professor, Department of Law, MAIMS.

IV. THE BRIDGE COURSE, 11 OCTOBER 2021 TO 16 OCTOBER 2021

The new session for the newly admitted students of BALLB and BBALLB started with the Bridge Course. The Bridge course is designed to prepare a student for advanced education. It was aimed to provide a sort of bridge passing through which a student of Class XIIth could move to the much advanced and professional arena of legal education. Students basically come from the streams of Arts, Science or Commerce. Usually it is found that students who do not study a certain subject as senior secondary level face many challenges while studying it at graduation level. Thus this Bridge course aimed to prepare them to understand the nuances of legal education and at the same time to understand about the disciplines of History, Sociology and Legal English and Economics.

This was a maiden initiative of the Department of Law, MAIMS. Course was planned for History, Sociology, Economics, Political Science, and Legal English from 11th October 2021 to 16th October 2021. The Resource persons for the course were Dr. V.K.Bhatnagar (Political Science); Dr. Anuradha Asthana Singh (History); Dr Nirdosh Kumar(Sociology); Ms. Ritika Bhatia (Economics) and Ms. Soumya Sharma (Legal English)

Besides this a session of SCC online was conducted in an online mode on 16th October 2021 by Mr. Chetan Singh Gill, a Master Trainer and Sr. Manager (Training) at SCC Online.

At the end of the session a MCQ test of the students was conducted in online mode. It was a 24 hours course with 20 hours of delivery of course curriculum, 2 hours of SCC session and 2 hours of course end exam.

The entire course was planned and executed by Dr. Nirdosh Kumar, Faculty, Department of Law.

V. “Netritva”

A lecture series on Judicial Service Examinations with an aim to prepare our students for the Judiciary Examinations started on 11th November 2021. Many students have enrolled in it and are getting benefitted. The Faculty involved in the Coaching session is in house and some subject experts from outside are also invited from time to time.

VI. GUEST LECTURE ON “ Analysis Of Preliminary And Final Decree vis-à-vis Ayodhya Judgement” , 13TH November, 2021

The Department of Law organised a Guest lecture on the topic – “Analysis of Preliminary and Final Decree vis a vis Ayodhya Judgment” on 13th November 2021 in a virtual mode.

The keynote speaker of the lecture was Dr. Anant Vijay Maria who is an Advocate practicing in the Supreme Court of India.

He explained all the aspects of the Ayodhya Dispute which started in the year 1857, with a suit being filed for the first time concerning the matter of worship. With the demolition of Babri Mosque in 1992 communal differences arose among Hindus and Muslims and also gave birth to the most famous Ayodhya Case or Ramjanmabhumi Case involving a property dispute of the land measuring 2.77 acres. Sir touched on various aspects of the case without touching on the religious part involved with the case. He explained the preliminary decree passed by the Allahabad High Court dividing the land equally among the Hindus, Sunni Waqf Board and the Nirmohi Akhara. Further when the case went into appeal to the Apex Court, the Constitutional Bench comprising of five judges unanimously decided to allot the whole land to the Hindus and the Central Government to be given a time of three months to set up a trust or the construction of the temple and a separate five acres land to be allotted to the Sunni Waqf Board for the construction of the mosque. The session was of great help to all the students as the Speaker clearly explained all aspects of the case in a simple and lucid manner. The session was conducted by the faculty coordinator, Dr. Nisha Dhanraj Dewani, Associate Professor, Department of Law, MAIMS.

VII.WEBINAR ON “Acid Attack: Uncivilized and Heartless Crime” (In Collaboration with National Commission for Women, Delhi)

Department of Law and the Gender Sensitization and Equality Initiative Club, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies organized a One Day Webinar on “ Acid Attack: Uncivilized and Heartless Crime”on 23rd November 2021. This program was organized in association with the National Commission for Women.

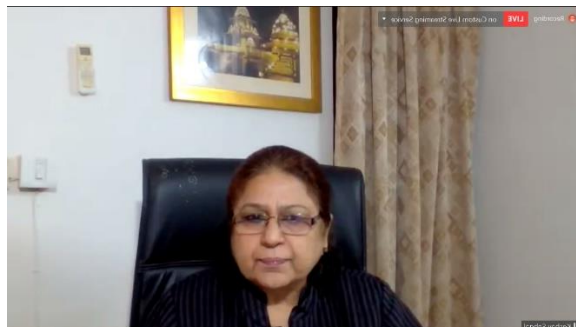

Prof.(Dr.) S.K. Garg, Director General MAIMS, in his welcome address highlighted the importance of women in the society and the problems which they have to face on a day to day basis.

Prof. (Dr.) Ravi Kumar Gupta, Director MAIMS, in his address appreciated the efforts of the women power in shaping the society and highlighted the incidences of rising crimes against women in the society.

The Chief Guest of the function was Hon’ble Justice Sangeeta Dhingra, former Judge Delhi High Court. The Guest of Honor was Prof. (Dr.) Usha Razdan, Former Dean, Faculty of Law, Delhi University who explained how providing first aid to the acid burn victim was of utmost importance.

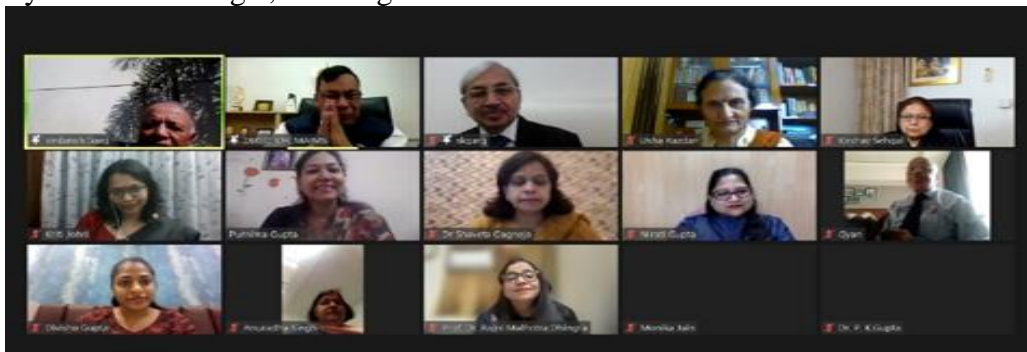

Dr. Nand Kishore Garg, Founder Chairman & Chief Advisor MATES and Hon’ble Chancellor, Maharaja Agrasen University also graced the occasion and stressed the need of educating young boys at home only how to respect and honor women and girls.

There were five technical sessions where the experts in their respective fields presented their views on the issue and enlightened the audience.

The experts were: Ms. Abha Malhotra, Sr. Counsel, Supreme Court of India; Prof.(Dr.)

Debarati Halder, Professor, Parul University, Ahmedabad; Ms. Shaheen Malik, an acid attack survivor & Founder Brave Soul Foundation; Dr. Siddhartha Mishra, Sr. Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi and Dr. Anjana Malhotra, Associate Professor, Shanti Devi Arya Mahila College., Dinanagar.

They covered diverse topics like Legal Implication of Acid Victim, Implementation of Victim Compensation scheme, Role of NGOs in combating Acid Attack violence, Health Care Management of Acid Attack Victims and Factors of Acid Violence in India. Each session was followed by a very interactive Question Answer session. The Convener of the event was Dr. Shaveta Gagneja.

X. VALUE ADDED COURSE

We enter into Contract daily but seldom realize their importance. Contractual relations represent a commitment and ensure that what has been promised, it must be performed.

Clarity in the terms stipulated in any Contract is pivotal as it showcases the intention of the parties while they ushered into a stage of consensus-ad-idem. Electronic Contracts have fostered this legal relationship even further. This Value added course is designed to help the students to comprehend the solution of the complex issues in the distinguished branch of the Law of Contracts.

The course started in December 2021 and will conclude in May 2022.

The first session took place on 15th December 2021 and the speaker was Mr. Anand Kumar Mishra who is currently posted in the Advocacy Division of the Competition Commission of India as Joint Director.
