Students Remarks	Redressal of the Remarks
Maintaining balance between academics and co-curricular activities is required	Co-curricular activities are organized mostly after class hours
Use of PPTs and visual presentations should be increased	Class rooms are well equipped with Projectors and smart boards to facilitate PPTs and visual presentations
There should be more offline examinations rather than Online	After relaxation in COVID – 19 related restrictions , internal examinations are now conducted in offline mode in college campus
Staff should be more interactive to students regarding their doubts	There is maintained a Mentor – Mentee system by deputing class (section) wise Mentor / Class coordinator to inter – act with students and to provide round the clock guidance , removal of doubts on all matters – curricular, co-curricular , examinations , career guidance and all other students related services
There should be more emphasis on practical knowledge than the book knowledge	The practical exposure through activities specific to law students such as Intra, Inter and national level Moot Court activities , PLVs training and activities in collaboration with DSLSA and DLSA , Distt. Courts Rohini (Delhi) , case law discussions and Summer internships are arranged regularly in addition to academic knowledge

• There should be more elective choice subjects	Suggestions shall be forwarded to GGSIP University to be considered by Board of Studies
• Program could be more dynamic covering extra classes for desired field of law	Value added courses, Lectures by experts and special workshops, interactive sessions etc., are arranged for specific areas of law such as IPR , ADR , Corporate law
• Time to cover 4 Units should be divided reasonably	More emphasis is put in Time table to reasonably divide all 4 Units and GAP analysis is carried out regularly to monitor the same
