Diwali Celebrations: Colourful Creations-Hands on Creativity

On Tuesday, 18th October, 2022, Department of Commerce, Maharaja Institute of Management Studies, organized an event for Diwali Celebrations in Block-9, 8th floor from 1:00PM–3:00PM. The topic of the event was “Colourful Creations: Hands on Creativity”. 26 participants registered for the event. The faculty members of the Commerce Department also attended the event.

The main objective of the event was to create an atmosphere of festivities among the students and showcase their creativity and to encourage the feeling of belongingness towards their culture and festivals. Students would learn how to participate in the team and build cohesiveness with the team members.

The programme started with the welcome address by Prof. (Dr.) Manju Gupta, Head, Department of Commerce. Prof. (Dr.) Manju Gupta, started with pointing out the importance of Indian festivals and how it plays an important role in building ethics and learning cultural values. She also emphasized on importance of creativity and art.

Students were asked to participate in one of the following categories of competition:

Diya Making

Rangoli Making and

Toran Making

Participation was allowed in the team of minimum 2 members. Based upon the best selection amongst the different categories prizes of Rupees 500 were given to the selected three winner teams each.

Rooms allocated for various activities:

1. Diya making -982
2. Torans making- 985
3. Rangoli preparation -8th floor corridor

Students were judged on the basis of creativity and time bound parameters by Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Director (MAIMS) and Prof. (Dr.) Manju Gupta, HOD (Department of Commerce) and the cash prizes were also given.

Winners of the event were:

1. Diya Making-Khushi Garg and Khushi Narang- Third Year
2. Toran Making-Govind Grover and Divya Goyal-First Year

3. Rangoli Making- Aayushi and Divit- Second Year

The students participated in the event enthusiastically and enjoyed their creative skills in the team. The program ended on a thank you note from Mrs. Shreya Garg & Mrs. Durga Aryal, the convener of the Event.
