

Report
Webinar on “Financial Literacy- Opportunities in Capital Market”

Date: 15th October, 2022

On Saturday, 15th October, 2022, Department of Commerce, Maharaja Institute of Management Studies, organized a webinar on Financial Literacy- Opportunities in Capital Market through zoom platform at 11 am. Total 73 participants registered from MAIMS. The main objective of the event was to make students understand about the mechanism of commodity markets and career opportunities available in the financial sector.

The programme started with the welcome address by Prof. (Dr.) Manju Gupta, Department of Commerce. Prof. (Dr.) Manju pointed about the role of commodity markets in the economy and how investors can make commodity as a part of their portfolio in the current scenario.

Mr. Vinit Singh Kaler, Sr. Manager- Training and Education, MCX India was the resource person for the event. He commenced the session with the introduction of commodity markets and its mechanism. The resource person also talked about the types of derivatives instruments, participants and trade timings, reflection of commodity live market, commodities derivatives ecosystem. Further, elaborated the types of commodity traded on the exchanges, factors affecting commodity prices and regulatory framework of commodity markets prevalent in India. Mr. Vinit finished the session with Do's and Don'ts while trading in commodity markets. He concluded the session with career opportunities for the students in commodity markets. Lastly, the talk was appreciated among students and faculty members and ended with answering of queries asked from participants.

The session was concluded by Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dingra, Director, MAIMS. He appreciated Mr. Vinit, the resource person of the event about the practical knowledge provided to the students during the event and ensure to make more events in future.

The session ended on a thank you note from Dr. Kamal Gupta, convener of the Webinar. The students were asked to fill the feedback form seeking their views about the session and its delivery.