Arthanomics - The Economics Society of MAIMS, conducted a mystery hunt event ESCAPED TRUTHS for the students of MAIMS, wherein the participants had to solve a series of clues and find out the final answer. After solving every clue in the series by moving from one location to another, they reached the final destination to decode the final and the toughest clue.

The mystery hunt started with a total of 30 contestants who were divided into 5 teams of 6 members each. The teams were named Alpha, Beta, Gama, theta, & Sigma, and all performed with great fervour and zeal.

Every riddle challenged the participants to find the hidden words from the given clue. Navigating these riddles really became easy when the participants quickly found the words. Everyone gave their best to win the mystery.

The whole event went smoothly and ended with a riveting riddle between the teams. The first team to finish all the questions in the shortest duration of time was announced as the winner of this event. This event made sure that the participants felt en-thrilled throughout. The society got overwhelming feedback from the participants.

"The beginning of knowledge is the discovery of something new and fun."

This event helped the participants brush up their brains and have a lot of fun!!

Team Gamma the finalists were felicitated by Dr. Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Director- MAIMS, along with Dr. Gaurav Aggarwal, HoD- Department of Economics, Ms. Kshama Aggarwal and Ms. Kamna Vaid, Assistant Professors-Department of Economics.
