VALUE-ADDED COURSE ON IP PRACTICE AND SKILL

(10th August- 16th September, 2019)

Department of Law, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies conducted a Value-Added Course on Intellectual Property Rights Practice and skills for the students of BALLB from 10 August 2019- to 16th September 2019 under the Coordinatorship of Dr. Nisha Dhanraj Dewani. The Value-Added Course was conducted during the regular classes only from 2:00- 4:00 PM. Two batches of students were formed to provide them more attention for each session. The classes of 1st Batch were conducted on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and the classes of 2nd Batch were conducted on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. All the classes were offline.

These 30 hrs covered all the main regimes of IPR in detail. The duration of the Course was 6 hrs spread per week. The classes of Value-Added Course were conducted in offline mode. Total 82 students participated in the course. The content of the course was designed separately for each subject keeping course curriculum of BALLB, GGSIP University in the focus. During the course, the subjects mentioned in the schedule were taught and tried to make the students understand about basics of each subject. The course was led by speakers from Delhi University, GGSIP University and Jamia Millia Islamia University. The first two modules namely introduction and Kinds of IPR had taken 12 HRS to apprise them the course and related facets. The 3rd and 4th modules namely Patent and Trademark were highly appreciated for the concepts of infringement, patentable and non-patentable subject matter and their related case laws. The 5th Module was on Copyright and Related Aspects where the resource person imparted the discussion in relation to copyright importance in today's world, Copyright and plagiarism, infringement and fair use perspectives. Also, this course was joined by industry people like Ms. Sonal Chadha and Ms. Ankita Khandelwal who helped the participants to understand the practical nuances of filing process in the field of copyright, Trademark and Patent in an ongoing session.

This VAC on IP was really informative and productive in order to train participants in the area of entrepreneurship. This course of one and half month duration provided participants with knowledge and training aspects in relation to their curriculum also. Towards the end of the last session, the audience communicated their queries with the speakers and got a clear picture of how to proceed with patenting their innovations. The course was truly an eye opener for both the students and the faculty where they realised their inner innovators. The feedback shared by the participants was also optimistic for speakers, management, and a conducive learning environment. All the 82 participants were able to qualify all the parameters namely attendance, feedback forms, quizzes and Assignments.

The Valedictory of the above mentioned course was held on 16th September 2019 where students were provided certificates.
