

Joy of Giving Week (9th Oct – 12th Oct, 2017)

Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies believes in inculcating the spirit of 'Selfless Giving' among its students. Daan Utsav, formerly known as The Joy of Giving Week, which is "festival of philanthropy" was organized at MAIMS from 9th October to 12th October, 2017. 4 days of giving - a simple idea where students are encouraged to do random acts of kindness to people they don't know for every day of the week. Daan Utsav aims to take the focus away from you on to others. Each day was dedicated to a different cause.

- Money, 9th October 2017
- Food items, 10th October 2017
- Clothes/Shoes, 11th October 2017
- Toys/ Stationary/Bags, 12th October 2017

The first day of the week started with a resounding response from students and faculties. The money collected was used to celebrate Diwali with people of Old Age Home, Kanjhavla, Braille Bhavan, Rohini and Aapna Ghar. An equally encouraging response was received on second day which was dedicated to collection of food items. It rained toys, stationary and clothes on the 3rd and 4th day.

Our collection of stationary items and books would be contributed to NGO – Bhumi. The clothes, food items and toys would be given to residents of leprosy colony at Mangol Puri. This noble endeavour would not have been possible without the able stewardship of our Founder Chairman, Dr N.K.Garg, Chairman, Shri Prem Sagar Goyal and Director, Prof M.K.Bhat.
