REPORT

DIWALI DECORATION COMPETITION (NOVEMBER 7, 2020)

The SRIJANA club of Maharaja Agrasen Cultural Society organized Shubhanjali – A Diwali decoration competition on November 7, 2020 in online mode at Google Meet platform. The registration for the event began from 30th October 2020, where the students had to fill the registration form and send in their Diwali decoration image till 6th November 2020. 15 participants registered for the event and a one-hour virtual competition was held on 7th November 2020 where these participants explained their creation to the judges – Ms. Neetu Agarwal, Assistant Professor, Business Administration and Ms Shikha Sharma, Assistant Professor, Business Administration.

The judges keenly observed each creation and quizzed the participants on various parameters like the choice of colour, design, theme and inspiration. There were three broad categories for the judgement – first, adherence to the theme, which was the occasion of Diwali; second, creativity where the judges judged their imagination; and third originality where the judges tried to understand their inspiration behind the creation. The student's explanation and creativity floored the judges and they commented that it was a tough competition. The competition was fierce as the students showcased many unique ideas. Abhishek Kumar Gupta, BBA 1E and Param Garg, BJMC 1D was declared as first and second respectively.
