Food Fest – Food Festival

(January 24, 2019)

Food is for sharing, celebrating, and socializing. Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS) with an aim to incorporate all three, organized a Food Fest on January 24, 2019. Total of 54 students participated in teams comprising of 2- 4 members in the event. The food fest featured a plethora of mouthwatering delicacies and variety of amusing food related games collated in stalls. Participants served a variety of food items with Indian and foreign flavors and created fusion dishes too. Golegappas, fusion pasta, dimsum, burgers, Waffles, and variety of mocktails and shakes were few of the most liked items of the food fest. The event witnessed a footfall of around 500 people who enjoyed the various dishes offered by the students. The institute facilitated stalls, electricity connections and other necessary help to the participants.

This event helped the students to bring out their creative ideas and talents.
