'Tamasha': Nukkad Natak Competition

(September 26, 2017)

Street plays are a wonderful platform to connect with the people and that is what attracted Samagra – The Theatre Society of MAIMS to conduct a Inter – college street play competition to get connected with the society. It is an excellent communication tool to understand the problems of the people and help them come out of it. This also helps in grooming the students as socially responsible citizens and when they grow up, they will be able to connect with the people easily. Keeping this in mind, a 'Nukkad Natak Competition' was organized on September 26, 2017 at the MAIMS campus by Samagra – The Theatre Society of MAIMS.

8 teams (145 students) of various colleges including one from MAIMS put in lots of efforts and came up with amazing performances. The first position was bagged by Team 5 of Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, Pitam Pura who performed a Hindi play 'Shakti' to highlight the various forms of violence that women face in public as well as private spaces. The play aimed to raise awareness about the crucial issue of gender-based violence prevalent in the Indian society scenario. The winner of the event was Team 5: Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce.
