

Paryavaran Raksha Sankalp Parv

'Paryavaran Raksha Sankalp Parv' was inaugurated at Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Technology and Management Studies with the resolution "Plant-trees - save water - remove polythene" to protect the environment on 31-Jul-2019. Students, teachers, office bearers of the institute and all other employees of the staff have been a part of this festival celebrated for a month.

Under the chairmanship of Dr. Nand kishore Garg, the founder president of the institute, senior campaigner of RSS, National co-convenor of environmental activities Mr. Rakesh Jain, the chief guest formally inaugurated the festival. In the welcome address, Dr. Garg said that we all have to take a pledge to protect nature and culture. He further said that polythene has to be avoided to save this earth. Chief guest Mr. Rakesh Jain, while discussing the ongoing efforts in this direction across the country, said to take a pledge to plant trees, save water, remove polythene.

On this occasion, Vice Chairman of the Institute Mr. Jagdish Mittal, Mr. Umesh Gupta, Mr. ML Goyal, General Secretary Mr. T.R. Garg, Treasurer Mr. OP Goyal, Mr. Gyan Agarwal, Secretary Mr. Rajneesh Gupta, CEO Mr. Gyanendra Srivastava, Coordinator of the program Mr. Vivek Garg, Mr. Satish Gupta, Mr. Hemant Gupta, Mr. Avinash Agarwal, Director Dr. Neelam Sharma and Dr. MK Bhat A large number of saplings were planted in the green belt of DDA by management officials, professors and students.