Poetry Competition

(February 09, 2019)

“Poetry is simply the most beautiful, impressive, and widely effective mode of saying things.”

Matthew Arnold

Manthan, The Literary society of Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS) organized an Intercollege Poetry competition on February 9th, 2019. The aim of the event was to promote poetry filled with warmth, whimsy, wit and wordplay. Two rounds of performance were planned, In the initial screening round participants submitted their entries to the societies and 15 entries were shortlisted for the performance on the day of the event. Total of 30 students from different colleges submitted their poetic entries.

Participants were allowed a total of 3 to 4 minutes to present their originally created writing using Hindi or English as language. Dr. Umesh Pathak judged the event and the participants were evaluated on the basis of rhyme, alliteration, personification and connect with the audience. The young poets enthralled the audience with their articulation and memory skills while reciting poems. It was a splendid opportunity for them to gain confidence through stage exposure. Everyone was delighted after seeing their pleasing performances.

Winners of the Poetry Competition were:

1st Position: Chandra Singh, Ramjas College, University of Delhi

2nd Position: Umar Siddiqui, MAIMS

3rd Position: Arpit Khandelwal, PGDAV College, University of Delhi
