Rangoli Competition

October 05, 2018

Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS) has always strived to keep its students culturally rooted. With the same spirit, Srijana- The Fine Arts Society of MAIMS organized a Rangoli competition on October 5, 2018 to celebrate and seek the blessings of Goddess Durga for the upcoming Navratras. Rangoli represents happiness, positivity and liveliness of a household, and is intended to welcome Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth and good luck. Students were allotted 1 hour to make rangoli at a designated place on the theme “Navratras”. Total of 30 students from different departments participated in teams of 3 (total 10 teams) in the event and depicted the theme through different creative ideas. All the teams painstakingly worked on their rangoli patterns and colors to bring out the most beautiful rangoli. The event witnessed a beautiful and devotional splash of colours by students of MAIMS. Dr. Manju Gupta and Ms. Sarita Garg judged and shortlisted 3 teams as winners.

The competition was aimed at nurturing the creative mindsets along with kindling the Indian cultural values among students of MAIMS. The event turned out to be an extremely learning and fruitful experience for the participants.

Winners of the Painting competition were:

1st Position: Ayushi Jain, Himanshi Sharma, Kunal Mittal (Department of Commerce)

2nd Position: Akansha Gupta, Kashish Sharma, Prachi Arora (Department of Journalism & Mass Communication)

3rd Position: Dimple, Geetika Bajaj, Harshita (Department of Business Administration)
