Our honorable Director Prof. (Dr). Ravi Kumar Gupta encouraged all the donors with words of encouragement. He thanked all the donors for the Noble steps they have taken and to help the fellow brethren. It is a gesture in bringing a ray of hope to contribute to the serious problems of acute shortage of blood. The problem can be addressed if an additional two percent of Indians donate blood, as opened by the health experts. We need 14.6 million units of blood every year but just about 93% are being donated. On the grounds of Voluntary Blood Donation Programme of government, our college has been religiously organizing blood donation camps every year and students and the faculty members come forward voluntarily to donate blood. While addressing to people at the camp our volunteers brought awareness in them about shortage of blood and why we must donate blood every year, to help the persons requiring blood. Blood donation can save lives of innumerable persons. Donation of blood is very critical and crucial for saving lives many patients and those who have met with accidents. It is as such a great service or contribution to the society and people living in it.

To watch over the entire process and to collect the blood, a team of doctors were put in charge. The college had also arranged for a resting room for anyone who felt dizzy or sick after donating blood. Volunteers also had come to help the school organize the blood donation camp. It was assured that the blood donors were very well hydrated before the donation and were given fruits, Biscuits and juices after donating the blood in order to reenergize themselves. The blood donors were provided with a blood donation certificate card and small gift hamper.

Organizing Unit: Gender Sensitization and Equality Initiative Club, MAIMS

Date and Time of the Event: 12th November, 2021, 12:00 - 01:30 PM

Location: MAIMS Campus

Number of students participated: 65

Resource Person: Mr. Salman (Trainer)

A workshop was organized by the Gender Sensitization and Equality Initiative Club in collaboration with Breakthrough India for the prevention of Street Harassment for Students. This orientation workshop was organized for students who have joined the Institute in this Academic Year. The objectives of orientation were to sensitize the students against street harassment at the workplace and campus and make them aware of the policy on these issues and the support system available at the Institute. The distinguished speaker namely, Mr. Salman had organised many workshops for different organisations on the prevention of street harassment. L'Oréal Paris and the NGO Hollaback! have therefore joined forces to protect the self-worth of women and men, creating a set of proven tools to help people safely intervene when they are a victim or witnesses to harassment in public spaces. The goal of the Stand-Up program is to train 1,000,000 people to become Upstanders and ultimately build a culture where street harassment is seen as unacceptable behaviour as some facts and initiatives shared by the speaker. Ms Sarita Garg Associate Professor Department of Business Administration, MAIMS welcomed the speaker with planter

"Harassment chips away at who we are and challenges our self-worth. The good news is there is something all of us can do to change it. We're proud to partner to show the world that we all have the right to be whoever we are -- whatever that means that day, "that hour, that minute." quoted by Mr Salman (the speaker). Mr Salman mentioned an end to violence and discrimination against women and girls, by addressing the cultural norms that perpetuate harmful, discriminatory practices. The organisation uses deep cultural insight along with media, the arts and popular culture to create non-threatening counter-narratives that inspire people into taking action and preventing violence against women. Breakthrough's award-winning campaigns, like Bell Bajao, have been instrumental in building a global movement on issues like domestic violence - bringing the issue into the public domain and building bystander action by negating notions of violence being a private matter. Students had great interaction and discussions with examples and activities and open the horizons to stand up against it. He also mentioned that "No witness does not mean false complaints." He also stated that RTI is not applicable. In the end, many students asked questions of the guest speakers. The speaker and guest speakers cleared their doubts. Prof. Dr Ravi Kumar Gupta, Director MAIMS, Ms Sumedha Dutta, President MACS enlightened the students with her presence. Ms Nirati Gupta, Assistant Professor, Department of Law MAIMS, delivered the webinar summary. At the closing, Dr Shaveta Gagneja, Convenor GSEI, gave the participants a vote of gratitude.

Enactus along with Legal Services Clinic, MAIMS launched Project Pranada which was aimed at fulfilling the sustainable development goal of ensuring clean and green environment by reducing plastic wastage and ensuring the objective of 3Rs i.e. Reduce, Recycle and Reuse. Plastic water bottles were bought from restaurants, which would've otherwise discarded these bottles thoughtlessly or would be polluting our lands. The innovative minds of our students saw a potential in the idea of turning these pieces of garbage into something of utmost necessity to the public i.e. toilets.

Aiming to transform these bottles into "EcoBricks" to craft lavatories for the underprivileged and improve sanitation levels in the rural settings has been the motive for the team. Members were given 6 bottles each to make EcoBricks out of them within the comfort of their homes. These EcoBricks would be used to construct toilets killing two evils at once- The menace of plastic pollution and Reduction in open defecation practices in addition amplifying education about hygiene maintenance.

Students of MAIMS distributing food items to the people of the region

We have observed 2nd year of the coronavirus that has not made such poor people out of the problems to fulfil their basic requirements. As the continuous spread of Corona and extension of lockdown has made the situation even more miserable as people in the society has lost their job effecting the middle-class people. This brought attention towards the people living below middle- class who are earning and spending on daily basis or are the mazdoor having only one earning member that too now unemployed.

We all are aware of the problems that the poor people had to face. So, as to do a little for the society, MAIMS has organized its 5th “Ration Distribution Drive” launched by Enactus along with DLSA for the poor people of the society on 20th September, 2021 in Begumpur.

Taking the experience further and facing the challenge of COVID-19 to make this 5th drive a success and also feeling the pain of downtrodden people of the society our student volunteers along with the teachers of our institution organized this Ration Distribution Drive and come forward to help these people in any manner, so they have decided to put forth their enthusiasm to next level in organizing this ration distribution. This time they have not only distributed food items but also given an addition to the list of food items including Pulses, Rice, Atta, Bajra, Fruit juice, Milk packets, Curd, Chips and also some cooked food and roti to the people. Now, as it's our 5th drive volunteers are familiar with these people and have made a good bond with these children, they share their problems with our volunteers as their family. Such challenges have made our students even more sensible and it made them happy that they have done something or other for these people.

While addressing to people at the camp our volunteers brought awareness in them about shortage of blood and why we must donate blood every year, to help the persons requiring blood. Blood donation can save lives of innumerable persons. Donation of blood is very critical and crucial for saving lives many patients and those who have met with accidents. It is as such a great service or contribution to the society and people living in it.

To watch over the entire process and to collect the blood, a team of doctors were put in charge. Enactus, MAIMS in order to fulfil the objective of its project “KAVACH” took a noble initiative to furnish cotton masks to the underprivileged and poor strata of the society during the deadly COVID-19 Pandemic and organised a Mask Distribution Drive to help them protect themselves from the spread of coronavirus disease.

There was a dual objective behind this initiative. The first was to give employment to the unemployed tailors who have lost their source of income during the lockdown situation by providing them with face mask orders and second to create awareness regarding the importance of wearing a face mask among the unaware masses.

A group of 20 volunteers visited the neighbouring villages of Begumpur and Libaspur and distributed cotton masks and helped create awareness about the surge of the deadly coronavirus. They successfully completed their first order in collaboration with Robin Hood Army and distributed 100 masks in each of these villages, keeping all the preventive measures and COVID precautions and protocols in mind.

The volunteers addressed girls and women of slum areas and made them aware about the disease which can be caused by using dirty cloths. A few important points were also highlighted such as they were made aware of various menstrual products available such as sanitary pads, tampons, menstrual cups, and reusable cloth pads and the proper disposal of menstrual products was also explained like how used pads, tampons, and other menstrual products should be wrapped and disposed of in a dustbin to prevent the spread of infections. They further motivated girls to talk about menstruation and feminine hygiene with their elder ones. Creating awareness and openness is one of the most effective ways to help teach girls how to properly manage their menstrual hygiene. 100 pads were also distributed to needy by student volunteers.

“It’s better to give than it is to receive”, is the well written verse from The Bible. We struggle with believing that giving is better than getting, and why wouldn’t we? Acquiring and hoarding are part of our broken nature. This year we planned to bring joy into the lives of children living in slums. Children growing up in slums experience a childhood that often defies the imagination of both the ‘innocent childhood’ proponents and the ‘universal childhood’ advocates. The idea was to do something for those children who are deprived of opportunities in their lives. The enthusiastic members of Nav Chetna Club in collaboration with DLSA decided to visit a school named, Shubhakshika, few kms away from our college. It is an educational society that has been working for education, rehabilitation and uplift of the underprivileged children and the marginalized sections of the society by providing opportunities for education, food, clothing and right direction to the lives.

We went there and talked to the in-charge of the school at that time and told her about what we are planning to do and asked for her permission to proceed further. She agreed and told us about how this society provides open shelter for home for street children, beggars, rag pickers and others in need and also a non-formal education for the deprived children and adults specially girls and Women.

We planned a sports day for the children, both boys and girls. We picked a day and decided to arrange everything in a park near the school. We arranged for different types of races such as 100m race, relay race, lemon race, one-leg race, long jump, etc., and made sure that everything get the chance to be a part of the activity and enjoy it. After we finished with all the races we provided them food, not only that they also have begun talking, singing, dancing and enjoying what we are doing, they were becoming a part of our programme. After everything is done, we gave them some stationary as a farewell gift. Afterwards, when everything was over it gave us so much satisfaction that our efforts succeeded. We felt really overwhelmed with the energy, the enthusiasm and the dedication of all of them. Finally, we were able to spread smile and joy in others life, especially the ones in need.

Through our act we were able to highlight the social reality and put across the message on women safety to the Audience. We staged a play on the theme Gender Equality, Violence on Women and Acid Attack in an attempt to raise awareness and solutions among the masses. The event of Nukkad Natak was a showcase of talent and enthusiasm of the students. The students not only enacted on the social oppression faced by women but also provided the solution for the same. Although it seemed like a tough task, yet our college SCHOOL OF LAW, MAHARAJA AGRASEN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES performed, interacted and distributed the templates about the help that victims can seek assistance from the DSLISA, Helpline number, NGOs and other resources.

Preparing and performing a Street Play on such controversial topic in the rush hour at the main Market to the public at large was a difficult task but students did some exceptional work. The play was prepared under the guardianship of Mrs. Purnima Gupta and our actors included students from Third year – Sneha, Shalini, Shruti, Keshav and students from Second year - Sonakshi, Punnya, Chahat, Aditya, Kunal. The play was filled with some humorous, emotional meaningful scenes which impressed all kinds of audience present there. 26 February 2020 Para Legal Volunteers went for the legal awareness drive i.e Door to Door Campaign in the village of Begampur along with the Faculty Convener and Advocate Sumit Garg. The volunteers interacted with people residing in the village and informed them about the legal rights they inherited. India is one of those countries in which most of the population are not aware of their rights therefore such awareness drives are the need of an hour. The main motive of Delhi Legal service authority of India is “Justice for all”

Making them aware is the best thing we can do at our level. The people there were enlighten with the Legal aid services that they can avail, also that who all are eligible for these services and in what circumstances they can seek this help.

They were also told about the Legal service cell situated in the College premises and about the availability of the expert lawyers for their guidance. During the interaction we came to know that our drive have actually familiarized them about the legal benefits they can get with the main motive of justice for all.

‘Let there be pleasure in giving others pleasure, sheer happiness, beyond all one might measure. It is in giving that we receive, only then eternal peace is achieved’

The joy of getting is short lived but the joy of giving lasts forever. Expanding our horizons beyond the disquiet earthly desires calls out for filling our hearts with joy and nourishment for soul. We know how happy we feel when we receive gifts on our birthday or when our parents treat us to appreciate for working hard or for something good, we do. Such joys do not last long and only make us feel good for a short while. On the other hand, when we make others happy, the sense of satisfaction felt within can only be described to be beyond all materialistic rewards. This is what we look for all our lives and even after having the key to pure happiness, we make very little efforts to try it on the correct lock.

Soaking in the spirit of sharing is caring, MAIMS celebrated ‘The Joy of Giving Week’ from 22nd October to 25th October 2019. The celebration commenced with the activity ‘Gift a Smile’. The staff and students of the MAIMS contributed second hand reusable items of clothing, books, toys, educational games, shoes, woollens, bed sheets and bags to be distributed to needy. The week-long festivity concluded with distribution of packets of these items to an NGO. Sharing love and care gave us immense happiness.

Our organization has taken the initiative to encourage giving and building ideals of compassion and generosity in everyone. This increases self-confidence and provides a sense of purpose in our employees. The beauty of this “festival of philanthropy” is that there are no limitations as to how one must celebrate it. Just listen to your heart! The motto of the Institute ‘Service Before Self’ resonated in these activities, thereby encouraging civic responsibilities, inculcating the spirit of giving back to the community and creating compassionate and selfless partnership.

नई दिल्ली, 1 जून (नवोदय टाइम्स) : रक्तदान ही सच्ची मानवता की पहचान और सही मायने में सेकुलर कार्य है। रक्तदान के समय कोई नहीं जानता कि उसका रक्त किस धर्म या संप्रदाय के व्यक्ति के काम आएगा। यह बातें अग्रसेन एजुकेशनल सोसाइटी के प्रमुख नंद किशोर गर्ग ने कहीं।

रक्तदान शिविर में सोसाइटी के छात्रों और शिक्षकों ने बड़े उत्साह से रक्तदान किया। शिविर में कुल 390 यूनिट रक्तदान किया गया।

Under the initiative of Dr. Nand Kishore Garg, Founder Chairman, MATES, and Shri Prem Sagar Goyal Ji, Chairman, MATES, in collaboration with Crime Against Women's Cell (CAWC), Delhi Police, conducted a ten-day training programme in self-defense (27th February, 2018 to 8th March, 2018) for the girl students of the Institute. In India, self-defense, especially for women is of utmost importance since crime against women has been on the rise. Providing self-defense training increases self-confidence in girls so that they can contribute meaningfully to their own development and shape their own destiny. This is indeed one of the noble initiatives taken by the Delhi Police.

The primary goal of the programme was to empower the girls in techniques of basic martial arts and self-defense. The programme whose main motto was "SAY NO TO FEAR" was conducted by a team of well trained women constables who demonstrated several techniques of self-defense using everyday objects and accessories that women use such as dupatta, hand bags, notebooks, and pens to protect themselves from crimes such as chain or bag snatching, acid attacks and physical assaults. The programme was also successful in creating a sense of awareness of the potential attacker's likely strategies and the ways to counter them. The trainers emphasized that awareness to be the first line of defense and trained students to create a "forced presence" in order to avoid such unpleasant situations. It equipped students with first aid techniques in cases of physical attacks and acid-attacks.

At the end of the training programme, a formal closing ceremony was organized on Women's Day, 8th March, 2018. The function was graced by Miss Veditha Reddy, SHO, Kanjhawala, Chief Guest; Shri Mohan Garg Ji, Joint General Secretary, MATES and Prof M. K. Bhat, Director, MAIMS. The Chief Guest, Miss Veditha Reddy, not only motivated the girls to explore their hidden strength and make self-defense a way of life, but also gave a talk to boys' students on gender sensitization.
