motivated all students to join and contribute to these for the development of their alma mater.

Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dhingra in her welcome address said that the purpose of organizing this combo event was that the outgoing batch could interact with their seniors who could guide them in their future prospects and endeavors.

Shri Mohan Garg in his address spoke about the values which the students must have learnt from the Institute like discipline, Joy of Giving, Serving the unprivileged sections of the society etc and urged the students to spread the light outside also. He added that the blessings of the Trust and Office Bearers was always there with the students. He asked the outgoing batch to remain connected with the roots, with the Institute and urged the Alumni Association to always be ready to help the needy students.

Shri Jagdish Mittal in his address gave blessings and best wishes to the students to soar high in the sky and achieve success in life.

Various cultural programs mesmerized the audience. Various rounds were held for Mr. Farewell and Miss Farewell and after grilling in the Final round of Question and Answer, Ms. Deepali Channa and Mr. Himanshu Chaudhary, both students of BA(JMC) were crowned as Miss Farewell and Mr. Farewell respectively.

The 'Bhangra Knights' group of MAIMS gave a wonderful, thrilling and scintillating performance of Bhangra dance and filled the audience with energy and josh.

All the students of outgoing batch as well as the Alumni were given Mementos to cherish.

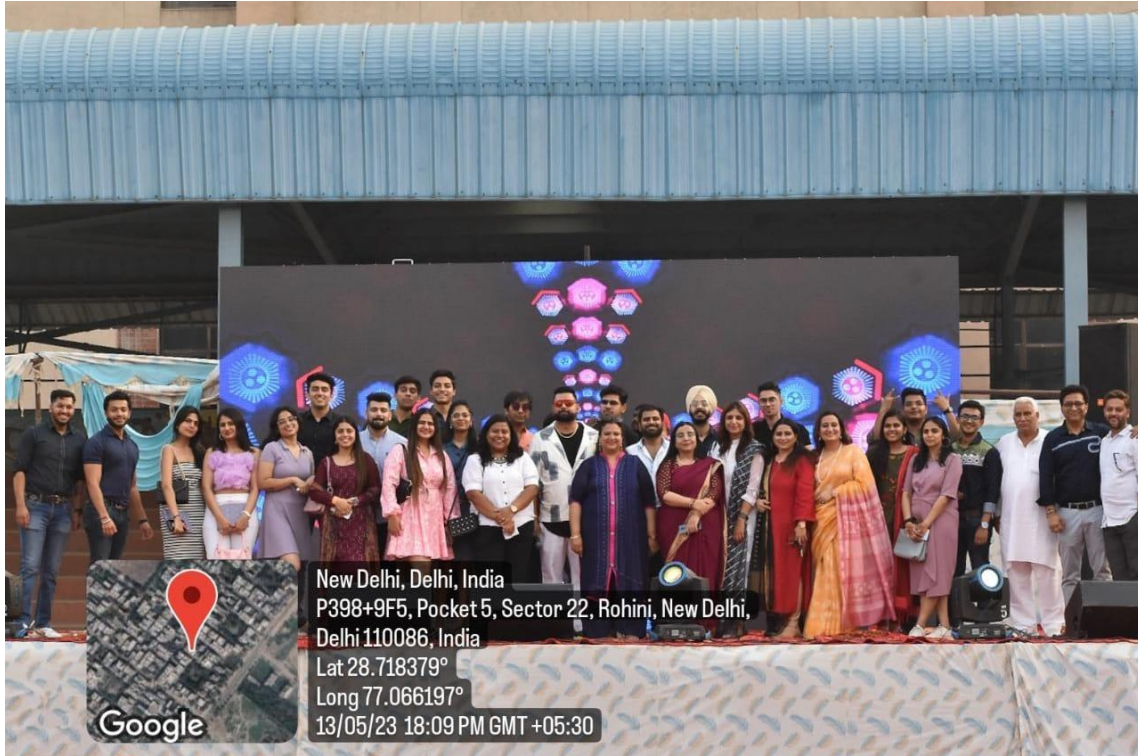

The final item was a wonderful dance and DJ performance where the students enjoyed to the fullest. With these memories of a fun filled evening the students of the outgoing batch entered a new stage of life and, the experiences at the Institute is definitely going to help them a lot in their future endeavors.
