DEPARTMENT OF LAW

Value Added Course on Research Methodology on Legal Skills and Communication

(15th January- 26th February 2019)

Timings: 2:30 PM-4:30 PM

Introduction

In a general sense research means diligent inquiry and careful search for new knowledge or contribution to an existing body of knowledge. In other words a research is an organized set of activities to study and develop a model, procedure and technique to find the results of a realistic problem supported by literature and data such that its objectives are optimized and further make recommendations for implication. Research methodology refers to a system of models, procedures and techniques used to find the result of a research problem. These processes are essential to learn by a prospective researcher. Often without training in methods, essays based on perceptions and quotations are passed as research particularly in nonacademic contexts. Needless to say, such research does not reach beyond a certain level. Training in research methodology provides development professionals with explanation and demonstration of main theories and techniques in research methods. Using these techniques is the first step towards developing a sound researcher. Keeping in view the importance of research methodology, the Refreshing Course is contemplated with an aim to explore the basic dimensions of research and the concomitant need for participants to rethink about the assumptions that underlie historic paradigms of research in the field of management. It includes recent development in research methods, methodological issues in research publication, publication ethics, use and misuse of statistics in research and availability of resources for reading material. On completion of the said programme the participants are likely to have developed the skills to review literature, develop hypothesis, frame research design and comprehend the role and relevance of the tools for data collection and analysis.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW

The Department of Law was established in 2017 with the introduction of five year integrated BA LL.B degree course. Established as a unit of the Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies, the Department aims to provide quality education with a professional approach to the budding legal professionals. The Department is equipped with requisite facilities like Moot Court, Legal Services Clinic etc. as stipulated by the Bar Council of India. It has a mix of senior seasoned faculty as well as young and dynamic faculty. The teacher-student ratio has been kept at the optimum level to meet the requirements of the students and the stipulated norms.

VISION

To be Centre of Excellence in providing legal education, training, research and consultancy.

MISSION

To offer quality legal education, training, research and consultancy and to embody the aspirations of the people and the community, by creating, preserving, integrating, transmitting and utilizing legal knowledge for the development of the society.

OBJECTIVES

- To focus on different modes of approach in order to meet the challenges of life in order to become not merely a trained professional but also a better citizen.
- To organize advanced level capacity enhancement and continuous knowledge up gradation training programs for people working in different capacities and roles.
- To conduct programs to build research, teaching and administration competence for holistic development of individuals.

Value Added Course on Research Methodology on Legal Skills and Communication

(15th January- 26th February 2018)

Department of Law, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies conducted a Value-Added Course on Research Methodology on Legal Skills and Communication for the students of BALLB from 15th January – 26th February 2018 under the Coordinatorship of Ms. Purnima Gupta. The registrations were started from 22nd December 2018. The Value-Added Course was conducted during the regular classes only including 15 sessions from 2:30- 4:30 PM. These 30 hrs covered all the main areas of research in detail. The classes of Value-Added Course were conducted in offline mode. There were 125 participants in total. The content of the course was designed carefully in order to accommodate the needs and urge of research. During the course, the subjects mentioned in the schedule were taught, and tried to make the participants understand the basics of each subject.

The first five lectures, first Module taking research, kinds of research, methods and methodology were delivered by Dr. Praveen Kumar Gupta. Second Modul based on Research Gap and Hypothesis was delivered by Ms. Nisha Dhanraj Dewani where she focused on the framing of the hypothesis along with the important tools for conducting the research. She also highlighted the criteria of a good literature review and research gap. The third Module was based on Qualitative and Quantitative Methods, led by Dr. Nirdosh Kumar where he discussed in detail the criteria of both the methods and uses for academics. He focused that statistics, data interpretation, and tabulation of facts providing the research a healthier understanding. He simultaneously addressed the tools and techniques useful in the area of Qualitative research. The Fourth Modul based on Data Collection was led by Ms. Purnima Gupta. These five hours were devoted exclusively towards the collection of data methods taking various studies in a practical manner. The sessions taken up by her were very inclusive and helped the participants to learn about the basics of research. The Fifth and Sixth Modules were led by Mr. Shridul Gupta, based on Sampling Techniques and Copyright Plagiarism where the speaker highlighted various sampling methods for conducting research and field
