ARTHONOMICS-THE ECONOMICS SOCIETY OF MAIMS EVENT REPORT

Name of the event: Debate To Decorate: a battle of Wits and creativity

No. of Total Participants: 23

Duration: 2.5 hours

'Arthonomics-the economics society of MAIMS' successfully planned and organised a Debate competition and Poster making competition 'Debate To Decorate: a battle of Wits and creativity' on October 17,2023 for the students. The topic of the debate was 'Is artificial intelligence a threat to job security and the economy,or does it drive innovation and Efficiency?' Participants were required to speak either FOR or AGAINST the motion. The topic for the poster making was 'Green economy vs Blue economy'. An amount of Rs.30 was charged to participate in the events.

DEBATE AND POSTER MAKING COMPETITION

DEBATE COMPETITION:

Organised by: Arthonomics- the economics society of MAIMS

Date and Time of the event: 17th October, 2023 [1pm onwards]

Location of the Event: Seminar Hall,9th Block, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies

Dr. Gaurav Aggarwal, HOD, Department of Economics graced the event. Ms. Kshama Aggarwal and Ms. Saloni were on the judging panel along with an Arthonomics member Ms. Karishma Garg.

The completion was designed as follows:

1. Each speaker was given three minutes to present their viewpoints.
2. Participation was marked on the basis of rationality and accuracy of their arguments,confidence and clarity while speaking and their defence.

The FOR team gave some really unique points:

- Ai significantly contributes to the cost efficiency
- By automating repetitive tasks and decision processes it reduces operational costs
- Ai gives best quality and is redefining the production of goods and services.
- Ai is an augmentation tool for human services rather than a replacement if used effectively.

The AGAINST team also gave some solid arguments:

- More than 800 million jobs around the world are about to be out of human control by 2030 due to automation
- This will create a wave of unemployment to all the sectors of the society.
- Majorly affecting the weaker sections

- AI does create a privacy thread to the users. Rumours are there that people are losing their private data because of Ai.

The event was a huge success and all the participants participated with utmost enthusiasm.

At last, the winners were announced who were as follows:

Freya Grover – 1st Position
Ansh Kapila – 2nd Position
Maurya Chopra – 3rd Position

Conclusion of the debate:

Artificial Intelligence is a Great tool in today's modern and fast world and it is cost efficient. It reduces operational cost and also serves the best quality in less time but it is also true that it is a threat to human population creating unemployment in all sectors of society. It is also a threat to the privacy of the users using it regularly or not using it at all. The misuse of this great technology is creating fear in its frequent users.

The event ended with a vote of thanks and Arthonomics is excited to organise more such events in future too.

POSTER MAKING COMPETITION:

Organised by: Arthonomics- the economics society of MAIMS

Date and Time of the event: 17th October, 2023 [12pm onwards]
