Report of Visit to Sweet Home- Maayka Ashram

Academic Year: 2023-2024

Name of Event: Visit to Sweet Home- Maayka Ashram

Organized by: NSS (National Service Scheme), Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies,

Date and Time: March 20, 2024, 11:00 AM onwards

Location: Sweet Home-Myakka Girls Ashram, Najafgarh, Delhi

Participants: 60 NSS Volunteers

Faculty Coordinators: Dr. Nirdosh Kumar, Assistant Professor; Ms. Divisha Gupta, Assistant Professor; Mr. Ayush Goel, Assistant Professor

On March 20, 2024, a group of 60 NSS (National Service Scheme) students from Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies, along with 3 faculty members, visited the Sweet Home-Myakka Ashram Girls NGO in Delhi. The purpose of this visit was to extend support to the women and children living in the NGO, who had faced various hardships, and to contribute to their welfare through donations and volunteering.

Upon arrival, the NSS students and faculty members were welcomed by the NGO's staff and residents. They were given a brief introduction about the organization's mission and the services. The NGO provides shelter and support to the women who have been victims of domestic violence, as well as children without parents or guardians. The students had the opportunity to interact with the women and children, listening to their stories and learning about their journeys. The emotional and inspiring stories left a deep impact on the students.

The NSS students and faculty members had privilege to support the NGO's work through donations of a variety of items like books (educational and recreational), food (non-perishable items and snacks) and Clothing (for women and children). These donations were gratefully received by the NGO staff, and they expressed their appreciation for the college's support.

In the afternoon, the NGO organized a lunch for the NSS students and their accompanying faculty members. The meal was prepared by the children residing at the NGO, showcasing their culinary skills and teamwork.

After lunch, the NSS students participated in various activities with the children, including games, storytelling, and arts and crafts. These activities helped to create a joyful and engaging atmosphere, allowing the children to have fun and build positive relationships with the students.

The visit to Myakka Girls NGO in Delhi was a memorable and impactful experience for the NSS students of MAIMS. It highlighted the importance of community service and the need to support vulnerable individuals in society. The NSS students and faculty expressed their gratitude to the NGO for their warm welcome and hospitality, and they hoped to continue supporting the organization's mission in the future. Overall, the trip served as a valuable reminder of the significance of compassion, empathy, and social responsibility in building a better world.
