The students of first year BALLB (2023-28) batch were taken for an educational visit to the Old Parliament of India as a part of their PSDA activity in History. A total of 139 students accompanied by five faculty members—Dr. Anuradha Asthana Singh, Dr. Nirdosh Kumar, Dr. Monica Jain, Ms. Swati Goel and Ms. Meenakshi Gupta reached the old Parliament building gate and after proper security checks entered the premises. First of all a briefing about the constitutional development and the working of the Parliament was done by the present Director PRIDE, the Lok Sabha Secretariat, Dr. Prashant Mullick. The students got to know about the process followed during the debates in the Parliament. Then the students moved to the historic Parliament Library, 2nd largest library in India which has a huge collection of rare books and documents. The first copy of our Constitution also lies here. After this, the students were first taken to the "House of the People" or the "Lok Sabha" and the "Upper House" or the "Rajya Sabha". The functioning and the sitting arrangement of the both houses was explained in detail by the Parliament Staff. After that the students were taken to the Central hall which has the seating capacity to accommodate 12 people. The briefing staff cleared the doubts of students on certain matters. After getting a group picture clicked on the lawns of the Parliament the students rushed for lunch which was quite sumptuous. Then they gathered again in the Parliament annexe where they shared their experiences and queries with the teachers and Dr. VK Bhatnagar, Adjunct Professor, MAIMS .By 3 PM it was a time of dispersal and the students returned to their residences and hostels with beautiful life-time memories in their minds.
