The MAIMS Moot Court Society, under the Department of Law, MAIMS organized the Workshop on Mooting and Memorial Drafting in virtual mode for the Batch of 2023-28, by Advocate Shivam Sethi, currently pursuing Master of Laws at Hidayatullah National Law University, Raipur.

A total of 90 students took part in the session.

The session conducted by Advocate Sethi, navigated students through the complexities of moot court proceedings, seamlessly integrating his personal experiences with a comprehensive doubt-solving session. This approach enlightened students about the procedural aspects, making them understand through real-life insights, also imbued students with a richer, more nanced understanding of legal practice. This unique blend of theoretical knowledge and practical wisdom significantly empowered the attendees, providing them with the tools and confidence needed. The session served as a transforming theoretical knowledge into actionable insights, thereby laying a robust foundation for the students' imminent successes in the competitive arena of moot courts.
