Students of 5th semester of the BA(JMC) Department of Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS) hosted a memorable Teacher's Day celebration titled "Back to Blackboard". The event saw the enthusiastic participation of students from all three years of the BA(JMC) program, alongside the esteemed faculty. In attendance were all the teachers from the department, including Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Director of MAIMS.

The event began with a vibrant play performed by the students of Samagra, the theatre society of MAIMS. The play beautifully captured the essence of teacher-student relationships and set an energetic tone for the rest of the celebration.

Following the play, a series of fun activities and games were organized by the students for the teachers. These interactive activities allowed teachers to engage with students in a light-hearted manner, creating a sense of camaraderie and joy within the department. The participation of students from all three years enriched the atmosphere and showcased the collective appreciation for the teachers.

One of the highlights of the event was a nostalgic medley performed by Swaraag, the music society of MAIMS. The students delivered a soulful performance of beloved songs creating an emotional and heartfelt moment for the teachers and students alike.

The event concluded with a moving speech by Prof. (Dr.) Umesh C. Pathak, Head of the BA(JMC) Department. His heartfelt remarks reflected a deep appreciation for the unwavering dedication of the teachers and their positive impact on the students' growth and development.
