On 1st October 2024, the Internship & Placement Committee of the Department of Law, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies hosted an offline workshop under Margdarshan 2.0. Mr. Akhand Pratap Chauhan, a Partner at Maheshwari and Co. and a distinguished expert in litigation with years of professional experience, led the session. The workshop commenced at 12:00 PM, beginning with a warm welcome by Ms. Ruchi Bhatnagar. Dr. Praveen Kumar Gupta, Head of the Department of Law at MAIMS, presented a token of appreciation to Mr. Akhand Pratap Chauhan Sir in the form of a memento and a sapling, symbolizing growth and enlightenment.

The workshop was highly interactive, with Sir initiating the discussion by exploring students' perspectives on litigation and its evolving role in the legal profession. He provided a comprehensive overview of various branches of litigation, including civil, criminal, and commercial litigation, emphasising the procedural intricacies and advocacy skills essential for success in these areas. Sir shared real-world experiences, offering a glimpse into the life of a litigator. He addressed key challenges faced by young lawyers, highlighted the importance of professional ethics, and stressed the value of continual learning. His insights into courtroom practices, case management, and client handling enriched the students' understanding of the field.

The session concluded with a lively discussion segment, where students actively engaged with Mr. Chauhan, seeking advice on building a litigation career, developing advocacy skills, and balancing theoretical knowledge. The workshop provided students with valuable insights into the litigation field, inspiring them to explore its vast potential and equipping them with the tools to excel in their legal careers.
