REPORT

In today's fiercely competitive environment, where students strive to meet industry standards with the requisite skill set and workplace decorum, they often seek a platform where their abilities and knowledge can be demonstrated in front of industry professionals. To address this need, Internship and Placement Committee, Department of Law of Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies organized an Internship Fair on February 10, 2024, within its campus. The fair's objective was to furnish students from legal department with an opportunity to interact with companies of their preference, enabling them to gauge their worth in the industrial landscape. Additionally, it aimed to level the playing field, ensuring each candidate had an equal chance to showcase their abilities and potentially secure opportunities for absorption into the workforce.

The Internship Fair commenced promptly at 11:00 AM, drawing an impressive turnout of students, with registrations totaling over 100 participants. Notably, the event boasted the presence of numerous esteemed law firms and distinguished advocates practicing across various courts, all actively engaged in the proceedings. This dynamic assembly provided an enriching platform for students to interact, engage, and explore potential internship opportunities, while also facilitating invaluable networking opportunities with professionals from the legal field.

This meticulously organized event brought together a prestigious array of law firms and distinguished advocates, creating an enriching platform for students to explore potential internship placements and engage in insightful interactions with industry experts. Spearheaded by the dedicated efforts of the committee members, the fair aimed to bridge the gap between academia and industry, empowering students to translate their theoretical knowledge into practical experience.
