Time of the Event: 09:30 a.m. onwards

Location: MATES Campus, Auditorium

Maharaja Agrasen Technical Education Society (MATES) hosted its annual Family Day, a vibrant and joyous event aimed at strengthening bonds among faculty, staff, employees, and their families. Held at the MATES Campus in Rohini, the celebration featured a blend of cultural, spiritual, and entertaining activities, making it a memorable occasion for all attendees.

The event commenced with a hawan ceremony, invoking divine blessings and infusing the gathering with spiritual energy. This was followed by the inauguration of the lift in the newly constructed Ram Gopal Gupta Block (9th Block) and the Sanatan Mandapam at Yagyashala, marking significant additions to the campus infrastructure. In a special felicitation ceremony, Founder Chairman Dr. Nand Kishore Garg and Chairman Mr. Vineet Kumar Lohia, along with other esteemed trustees and dignitaries, were honored for their invaluable contributions to the institution's success. Among those recognized were several key members of MATES, trustees, and distinguished guests, including Dr. S.S. Deswal, Prof. Dr. Neelam Sharma, Prof. Dr. Rajini Malhotra Dhingra, Dr. Sandeep Marwah, and Dr. Manoj Verma.

During his address, Dr. Nand Kishore Garg expressed immense pride in MATES' achievements, particularly as it celebrates its Silver Jubilee milestone with over 50 impactful events hosted in the past year. He acknowledged the unwavering support of over 200 dedicated trustees, whose efforts have been instrumental in the success of Maharaja Agrasen Ayush Hospital (Maa Hospital) in Himachal Pradesh. Dr. Garg also announced plans to launch a 100-bed healthcare facility for senior citizens by April, with a vision to expand it to 500 beds and eventually develop it into a full-fledged nursing hospital. Additionally, he revealed plans for a new hospital in the Haryana-Delhi belt, further expanding MATES' healthcare services. Highlighting the remarkable achievements of MATES alumni, who continue to excel in top-tier organizations worldwide, he also expressed appreciation for the Kumbh Mela Committee for organizing a sacred dip at Triveni Sangam, underscoring the institution's commitment to preserving spiritual and cultural traditions. Encouraging the younger generation to embrace Sanatan Dharma, he emphasized the importance of its values in leading a meaningful and purposeful life.

The event was filled with interactive games, live entertainment, and delightful surprises. A mesmerizing retro melody performance by Ms. Anupama Malhotra had the audience tapping their feet. A dedicated fiesta zone at the 11th Block featured food stalls offering a variety of delectable cuisines, along with games, tambola, lucky draws, and interactive activities that brought joy to attendees. Thrilling activities such as tattoo making and competitions added to the lively atmosphere.

The highly anticipated Lucky Draw segment saw enthusiastic participation, with winners taking home exciting prizes, including LCD TVs, a Cold Press Juicer, Air Fryer, Oil Heater, Mixer Grinder, and more. In the Trustees' Lucky Draw, Sh. Rajneesh Gupta (Joint General Secretary) won a 50" LED TV, Ms. Asha Rani won an Air Fryer, and Dr. Nand Kishore Garg won a Sujata JMG. Among faculty winners, Ms. Saloni Arora won a 43" LED TV, Ritika Sachdeva from MAIT won an Oil Heater, and Sagar won a 50g Silver Coin. Consolation prizes were awarded to Dr. Vinay Saini, Ms. Sumedha, Ms. Shweta Goel, Dr. Ankit Goel, and Dr. Anuradha Goyal.

The afternoon was filled with warmth, laughter, and camaraderie as families and friends came together to celebrate. From friendly competitions to engaging discussions, every moment of the event contributed to a day of joy and togetherness. The resounding success of Family Day was evident in the smiles, laughter, and cherished memories created throughout the celebration. MATES remains committed to fostering a strong sense of community, tradition, and excellence, paving the way for even greater milestones in the future.
