Event Overview

The Department of Business Administration proudly hosted a Debate Competition for first-semester BBA students. Designed to enhance critical thinking, sharpen public speaking, and hone argumentative skills, this event provided a dynamic platform for students to engage deeply with pressing business and social issues. Aiming to build a foundation of effective communication and analytical abilities, the competition also fostered a healthy, competitive spirit, inspiring participants to present their perspectives with clarity and conviction.

Topics Discussed

Participants demonstrated their analytical acumen and intellectual prowess by tackling a range of relevant, complex topics, which included:

1. Contemporary Business Issues
2. Social and Economic Policies
3. Environmental Challenges in Business
4. Technology and Innovation in Business
5. Global Market Trends

Each topic provided students with the opportunity to showcase their understanding of critical issues affecting the business world today, fostering meaningful discussions that highlighted the diversity of thought within the class.

Highlights and Insights

The competition saw passionate debates, where students articulated their arguments with confidence, creativity, and a deep understanding of the subjects at hand. Guided by the principles of respectful dialogue, participants engaged in thought-provoking discussions, reflecting on the complexities and nuances of each topic. This exercise not only enriched their knowledge but also helped them build invaluable interpersonal and persuasive skills essential for their future careers.

Results

Out of the 40 talented participants, two individuals stood out for their exceptional performance:

- 1st Place: Advay (BBA 1B) – Displayed an impressive combination of depth in analysis and eloquence in delivery, earning the top position.
- 2nd Place: Kanan (BBA 1B) – Showcased remarkable clarity of thought and articulation, securing the second position.

These winners exemplified the qualities of confidence, clarity, and critical thinking that this event sought to cultivate.

The BBA 1st Semester Debate Competition successfully provided students with an enriching and transformative experience, equipping them with skills that will prove invaluable in their academic journey and beyond. The Department of Business Administration extends heartfelt congratulations to Advay, Kanan, and all participants for their dedication and performance. Their enthusiasm and commitment truly underscored the significance of intellectual exchange in fostering both personal and professional growth.

The department looks forward to organizing similar events in the future, further nurturing the development of well-rounded, articulate, and confident business professionals.
