Report: Farewell Celebration

“CHEERIO BASH ’25”

Academic Year: 2024-2025

Name of the Event: Farewell Celebration – Cheerio Bash ’25

Date: Tuesday, 6th May 2025

Time: 12pm to 6pm

Venue: Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS)

Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS) said a memorable and emotional goodbye to the graduating Class of 2025 in the form of a grand celebration called Cheerio Bash ’25. It was not just a farewell but a celebration of the memories, friendships, and experiences made over the years.

The day began with a high-octane fashion show by the institute’s fashion society Cygnus, with a mix of glamour and excitement that set the pace.

The occasion was blessed with the presence of Director Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, trustees, and other esteemed guests. Although Chairman Dr. Nand Kishore Garg was unable to attend personally, he sent his warm regards to the students. The ceremonial lamp lighting and felicitation of the guest marked the official commencement of the farewell.

Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Dhingra gave a motivational speech, starting with a powerful Hindi poem on perseverance and growth. She spoke about the need for discipline, honesty, and faith in oneself, urging students to continue ahead with courage while always keeping the spirit of MAIMS within them. “Wherever you go, take with you not just memories, but the values that shaped you,” she told them.

Joint General Secretary Mr. Mohan Garg congratulated the institute on the success of Operation Sindoor and took pride in informing that today’s Chief of the Indian Air Force is an alumnus of MATES. He emphasized that students should remain in touch with the alumni network and ended with the rousing cry, “Nation First – Jai Hind!”

A deeply moving speech by student Eshita Kakkar added an emotional dimension to the day, reminding everyone of the bonds formed over time. This was followed by an electrifying Bhangra performance by the Bhangra Knights, which elevated the celebration. A spontaneous Q&A segment kept the energy lively and engaging.

The farewell celebration also featured the much-anticipated Mr. and Miss Cheerio '25 competition. Round 1 saw contestants introducing themselves with confidence and charisma, leaving a lasting impression. In the second round, participants showcased their talents through vibrant performances—ranging from dance and singing to storytelling and poetry—captivating the audience and judges alike. The competition was a true reflection of creativity, spirit, and celebration.

In the last round, players were tested with a speedy 30-second quiz. Following reflective and humorous answers, the much-prized titles were given to:

- Mr. Cheerio 2025 – Kanishk (B.Com)
- Ms. Cheerio 2025 – Shubhra (BBA)

Students were also given fun titles like Mr. Charming, Ms. Diva, Ms. Instagram, Ms. Best Personality, among many others — highlighting the individuality and creativity of the graduating batch.

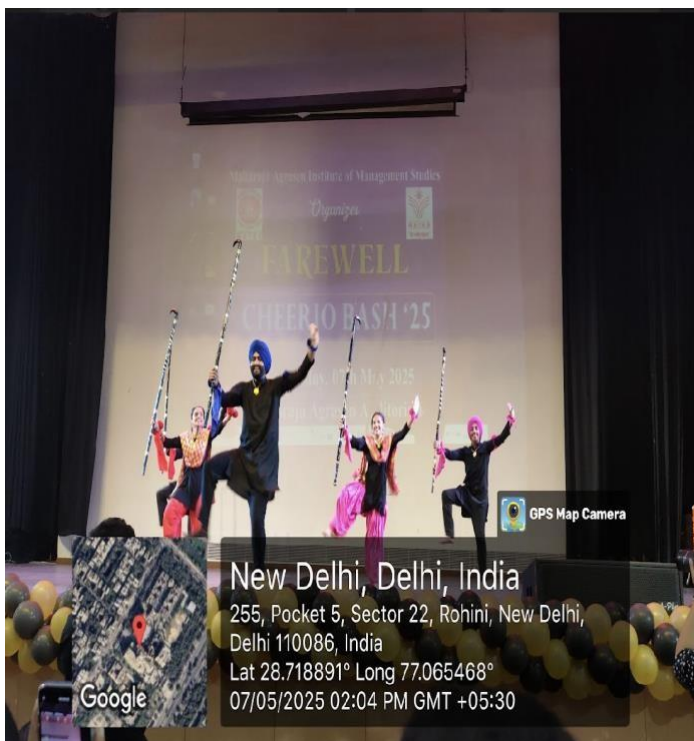

Cheerio '25 was not an adieu, but a culmination of memories, experiences, and the spirit to move ahead. As MAIMS bid adieu, it did so with pride, affection, and hope for the bright futures that lie ahead for its students.

Cygnus Fashion Society kicked off Cheerio Bash '25 with a dazzling runway show full of glamour and confidence.

The ceremonial lamp lighting marked the official commencement of the Cheerio Bash '25 celebration.

A lively Bhangra performance by Bhangra Knights brought energy and joy to the farewell stage.

Participants of Mr. and Ms. Cheerio'25 dazzled the audience with their talent and charm during the talent round
