The Training and Placement Cell, Economics Department of Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies organized an enriching Seminar on the topic BFSI and CAPITAL MARKET on 9th September 2025. The event was attended by 94 students along with three faculty members, creating an engaging and interactive atmosphere.

The guest speaker was Mr. Ankit Sharma (Batch of 2010), who also pursued his MBA from MAIMS. He is currently working as a Private Banker – Private Wealth Management at ICICI Securities Ltd. His professional journey includes serving as Regional Head – Retail (2023–2025), Branch Manager – Retail (2020–2023), and Wealth Manager – Retail (2016–2020).

The event began with a warm introduction about Mr. Sharma's academic and professional achievements. A token of gratitude and memento was presented to him by Dr. Gaurav Agarwal (Head of Department) and Ms. Kamna Vaid. Mr. Sharma delivered an insightful talk covering the basics of capital markets and financial planning. He explained the concepts of mutual fund investments, highlighting the differences between SIP and lump sum methods. He also elaborated on the types of mutual funds, including debt, balanced, and equity funds. Furthermore, he emphasized the importance of using correct financial terminology, such as equity, especially in interviews. Students also gained valuable insights into IPOs, asset selection, and wealth management strategies. The session became highly interactive during the Q&A round, with students actively clarifying doubts and engaging in meaningful discussions.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. Ankit Sharma, followed by group photographs. The department expressed heartfelt gratitude to him for sharing his valuable knowledge and inspiring the students with his journey from campus to corporate success.
