Institution Head: Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dhingra

Event Coordinators: Dr. Bharti Chaudhary, Dr. Sanam Sharma, Ms. Shraddha Sharma

Event Date: August 28, 2025

Event Time: 10:00 am

Event Location: Seminar Hall, MAIMS

Total Participants: 60

Event Overview

The Training & Placement Cell of the Department of Business Administration organized a Career Counselling Session from August 28, 2025, in the Seminar Hall at MAIMS. The event was designed to give BBA students career clarity, industry insights, and guidance on the skills required to succeed in today's competitive environment.

Introduction to the Speaker

The session featured two accomplished alumni of the institute. Mr. Madhav Arora, currently Project Manager at Genpact and a PGPM graduate from GLIM, has also worked with Amazon and SBI Mutual Funds. He shared his professional journey, the challenges he faced, and the importance of adaptability and continuous learning. Mr. Kunal Aggarwal, Senior Program Manager at Turing and an alumnus of the Indian School of Business, spoke about his experience at Amazon, ZS Associates, and EY. He emphasized problem-solving, communication, and strategic thinking as the foundation of long-term success.

Purpose of the Seminar

The objectives of the Alumni career mentorship session were:

- To familiarize students with possible career directions after BBA.
- To help them understand industry expectations and workplace realities.
- To encourage them to build skills that enhance employability.
- To provide guidance on higher education opportunities.
- To emphasize the importance of networking and personal branding in career growth.

Key Highlights

1. Career Journeys:

Both speakers candidly shared their transition from student life to the corporate world, inspiring students with real-world experiences. Their stories highlighted the importance of patience, resilience, and making informed career choices.

2. Skill Building:

The importance of analytical skills, communication, adaptability, and problem-solving was highlighted as crucial for long-term success. They stressed that these transferable skills often matter more than just technical knowledge.

3. Industry Insights:

Students gained valuable understanding of consulting, program management, e-commerce, and financial services. The speakers also shed light on how these industries are evolving and the emerging opportunities for management graduates.

4. Higher Education & Certifications:

Guidance on pursuing post-graduate management programs, professional courses, and continuous learning was provided. They emphasized that higher studies should be aligned with individual career goals rather than peer pressure.

5. Interactive Q&A:

Students actively engaged with the speakers, seeking advice on internships, placements, higher education, and entrepreneurship. The open dialogue helped clarify doubts and made the session highly relatable and motivating.

Conclusion

The Career Counselling Session was a highly insightful and interactive initiative that gave BBA students clarity about their career paths. The valuable experiences and guidance shared by Mr. Madhav Arora and Mr. Kunal Aggarwal left students motivated, better informed, and more confident about shaping their futures. The session received overwhelmingly positive feedback, affirming its role as an important step in bridging academic learning with real-world career success.
