A seminar on the topic "Bhartiya Samvidhaan aur Viksit Bharat ki Pratigya" was organized by the Department of Law, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS) with the aim of enriching the understanding of the Indian Constitution among budding legal professionals and reflecting upon its relevance in building a Viksit Bharat.

The event began promptly at 10:30 AM, with the felicitation of the Resource Person by Prof. Dr. Praveen Kumar Gupta (Head, Department of Law, MAIMS). The seminar was graced by the presence of Shri Laxminarayan Bhala Ji, Pracharak, RSS (Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh), a name that resonates across the fields of journalism, literature, and social service. Shri Laxminarayan Bhala Ji began his session by delving into the historical evolution of the Indian Constitution. He spoke at length about the struggles and aspirations of the Indian freedom movement and how these laid the foundation for a democratic and sovereign nation.

One of the most enriching aspects of the seminar was the comprehensive explanation of each part of the Constitution. Shri Bhala Ji meticulously explained the various Parts of the Constitution with reference to the related pictures. A major thematic focus of the seminar was the role of the Constitution in nation-building and achieving the vision of a 'Viksit Bharat'. Shri Bhala Ji highlighted how constitutional values such as justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity are not merely theoretical concepts, but practical tools that can guide India's development trajectory. He encouraged the students to understand the Constitution not just as a legal document, but as a moral and social compass that aligns the efforts of every citizen and institution toward a progressive and inclusive nation. Second-year law students, showed great enthusiasm and engagement throughout the session which concluded with a vote of thanks by the faculty coordinator.
