NAVRANG 2K25

Students and Faculty of Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies, Department of Commerce organised an event “Navrang 2K25” on the occasion of Navratri on 26th September 2025. Students of Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies got engaged in the event to celebrate the divine energy with enthusiastic participation.

The program enabled the students to develop essential skills like attention to detail, patience, and fine motor skills. Participating in such competitions enhances visual learning and encourages critical thinking of the students. It also fosters teamwork when done in groups, as students collaborate to create beautiful designs. Innovation and creation are the words that best describe their efforts. The event overall marked huge success with fun feedback from all participants and volunteers.

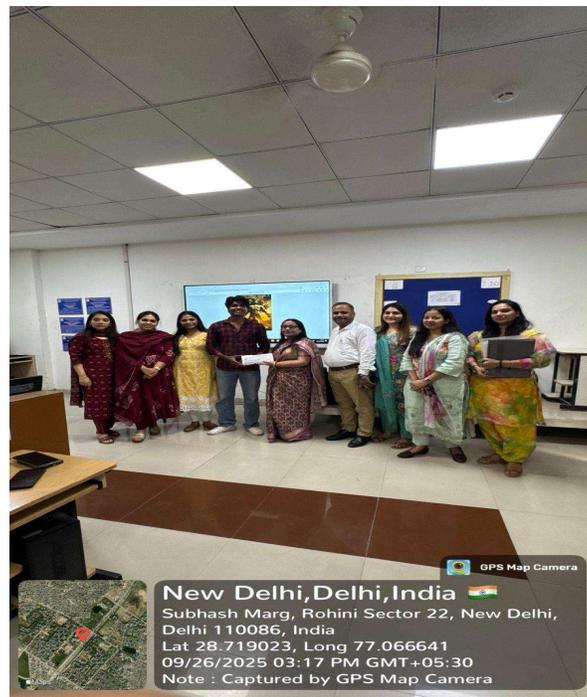

Rangoli and E-posters were judged by Dr. Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Director, MAIMS. Cash rewards were given to the students who won the competition and also the runner ups were gifted in all the competitions. It was so interesting to witness students participating in teams for rangoli and with the use of rice, flowers, colours, diyas; the students built a cultural connection, enhanced their creativity and artistic skills along with learning teamwork and collaboration.

The students also participated in an E-poster competition wherein the theme was “Good over Evil”. The students crafted beautiful posters, thus representing the navratri theme. The competition allowed students to employ their creativity and skills to embrace the divine feminine. They learnt the art of digital literacy, developed critical thinking, and boosted their confidence and presentation skills along with deepened cultural knowledge. The competition was judged by director mam and the winner and runner up were awarded with cash prize and gift respectively.

The Navshakti quiz consisted of 20 questions based on navratri and were multiple choice questions. The faculty members, Dr. Sheetal and Dr. Pooja assessed the quiz forms and awarded the winner and runner up. This allowed for cultural awareness among students, promoted active learning, and strengthened moral and ethical values along with celebrating a feeling of festive spirit in the institute.
