The Department of Law, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS), under the aegis of its Internship & Placement Committee, successfully organized a Session on Gaming Law on Tuesday, May 6, 2025, at 10:30 A.M. in the 8th Floor, 11th Block of the college premises.

The guest speaker for the session was Advocate Ketan Joshi, Senior Associate at Maheshwari & Co., a prominent law firm renowned for its corporate and technology law practice. With his extensive experience in the legal and regulatory framework governing the gaming industry in India, Adv. Joshi delivered an insightful and thought-provoking lecture on the emerging legal complexities in the rapidly evolving domain of online gaming.

The session began with a formal welcome address by the faculty coordinator of the Internship & Placement Committee, who introduced the esteemed speaker and briefly highlighted the increasing relevance of gaming law in contemporary legal practice.

Adv. Joshi delved into various facets of gaming law, including:

- The legal distinction between games of skill and games of chance;
- Judicial precedents governing gaming and betting in India;
- The regulatory landscape across different states;
- The impact of the IT Act and Consumer Protection laws on online gaming platforms;
- Recent legislative and policy developments, including central regulation efforts;
- Ethical and social concerns, including addiction and user protection mechanisms.

He further engaged students with real-life case studies and landmark rulings that have shaped the gaming industry. The session was highly interactive, with students raising queries about career opportunities in gaming law, the legality of fantasy sports, and the scope of data protection in gaming platforms.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by a Ms. Aditi Agarwal (Vice President-Training), who expressed gratitude to Adv. Joshi for his valuable time and insights, and to the Internship & Placement Committee for organizing the session. The session served as a learning opportunity, equipping the students with nuanced knowledge of a contemporary and niche area of legal practice.

The Internship & Placement Committee expresses its gratitude to the expert panel, faculty coordinators, and students for making this event a success.
