The Legal Services Clinic, Department of Law, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies recently organized an insightful guest lecture on “Rights and Duties in Property Law” to enhance students, understanding of property rights, legal obligations, and their real-world implications. The session was conducted by ADV. MANOJ KUMAR, a distinguished expert in property law, who provided a comprehensive overview of the subject while making the discussion interactive and engaging. The session began with an introduction to the fundamental principles of property law, including the classification of property into movable and immovable assets. Additionally, they explained the legal duties associated with property ownership. The most engaging part of the lecture was the interactive Q&A session. Students actively participated by asking insightful questions regarding inheritance laws, landlord-tenant relationships, and property disputes.

Following the lecture, a felicitation ceremony was conducted to honor our esteemed guest. The esteemed presence of Director Prof. (Dr.) Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Head of the Law Department Prof. (Dr.) Praveen Kumar Gupta, along with faculty coordinators Dr. Purnima Gupta, Ms. Akanksha Tagra, Ms. Simran Chhabra, and Dr. Monika Jain, added grace and prestige to the event expressed gratitude on behalf of the college for the guest speaker's valuable time and contribution.

Overall, the guest lecture on “Rights and Duties in Property Law” was a highly enriching experience. It not only enhanced our legal knowledge but also sparked curiosity about property-related legal matters. The interactive nature of the session made learning engaging, and the felicitation ceremony was a fitting conclusion to the event. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Adv. Manoj Kumar for their invaluable insights and to the Head of the Law Department for their support. We look forward to organizing more such informative sessions in the future.
