About the Workshop

The Department of Commerce, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS), organised a Workshop on Financial Literacy with the objective of enhancing students' understanding of personal finance, investment planning, and capital market awareness. The workshop commenced with the formal felicitation of the resource persons. The Head of the Department of Commerce, Prof.(Dr.) Manju Gupta warmly welcomed the distinguished speakers and felicitated them with mementos and saplings as a token of appreciation.

The first session was conducted by Mr Alok Gautam, Assistant Manager at Central Depository Services (India) Limited (CDSL), Business Development – Northern Regional Office. He enlightened the students about the fundamentals of financial literacy, the importance of budgeting and disciplined saving, and the functioning of the depository system in India. He also explained the role of CDSL in the capital market and highlighted the significance of informed investment decisions and investor awareness. Through practical examples, he guided students on how to begin their investment journey responsibly.

Following this, Mr Chandresh Gupta, SEBI-SMART and National Institute of Securities Markets (NiSM) Corporate Trainer, addressed the gathering. He provided valuable insights into the stock market and elaborated on the concept of the derivative market, explaining futures and options in a simplified and engaging manner. He discussed risk management strategies and emphasised the importance of understanding market volatility before investing in derivative instruments.

The workshop was highly interactive, with students actively participating and raising queries related to investments, risk assessment, and financial planning. The session concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the resource persons for sharing their expertise and guiding students toward becoming financially aware and responsible individuals.
