land purchased near the ashram with the support of all members of Delhi Ashram. The total capacity of the Ashram is now 653 Prabhiji's.

The Prabhujis beyond capacity are transferred to Apna Ghar Ashram Bharatpur for care and support. All required facilities such as treatment, food, clothing, residence, and other necessities are provided to the Prabhujis (Resident) without any charges and with the support of the society. This Ashram provides care and service to helpless male destitute persons who are found in the circle of 200 km of Delhi and nearby.

Key Highlights

The visit to Apna Ghar Ashram was marked by several educational highlights, including:

At Apna Ghar Ashram, the visit was conducted by Mr. Shubham, Sevak at Apna Ghar Ashram Pooth Khurd, New Delhi. The first session began with an introduction about the welfare of destitute people, which was followed by an introductory video of 5-7 minutes. Students were enlightened regarding the history of Ashram, the founder of Apna Ghar Ashram, and the welfare of various Prabhujis (destitute people). After which, students got the opportunity to distribute fruits to various Prabhujis along with the donation to the Ashram, cash and grocery items like pulses, rajma, rice & desi ghee etc. This cause helps the students to invoke in them the feeling of social welfare towards the society.

.This Ashram is only for male Prabhujis, and people can donate for the welfare of these deceased people. The visit to the Apna Ghar Ashram was a highly informative experience that provided students with real-world understanding of social issues like poverty, mental health, and housing insecurity. Some of the screenshots of the visit are:-
