Event Overview

The Department of Business Administration, Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies (MAIMS), organised a seminar on “Careers in Securities Markets & Role of NISM” on 6th October 2026. The session was conducted with the objective of creating awareness among BBA students about career opportunities in the securities market and the importance of professional certifications and skill development in the financial sector.

The seminar provided students with an opportunity to interact with an industry expert and gain practical insights into the securities market, professional opportunities, and the role played by the National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM).

Resource Person

The session was delivered by Mr. Subhayu Das, Assistant General Manager, National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM).

Mr. Das brings extensive professional experience in the financial and securities-market domain. His profile includes experience in areas related to securities markets and financial services, along with professional qualifications and certifications. His expertise enabled students to gain practical and industry-oriented perspectives on career development in the financial sector.

Objectives of the Seminar

The seminar was organised with the following objectives:

1. To create awareness about career opportunities in the securities markets.
2. To familiarise students with the role and importance of NISM in the financial sector.
3. To provide students with insights into various career pathways in securities markets.
4. To highlight the importance of professional certifications and skill development for finance-related careers.
5. To bridge the gap between academic learning and industry requirements.
6. To motivate students to explore careers in financial markets, investment services and related areas.

Proceedings of the Event

The seminar commenced with a brief introduction to the theme of the session and the relevance of securities markets for students pursuing business and management education.

Mr. Subhayu Das interacted with the students and discussed the diverse career opportunities available in the securities-market ecosystem. He highlighted the importance of developing relevant knowledge, professional competencies and industry-oriented skills for entering and progressing in the financial sector.

A significant part of the session focused on the role of NISM and its contribution towards enhancing knowledge and professional competency in the securities markets. Students were made aware of the importance of structured learning and certification for building a strong foundation for careers in finance and securities markets.

The resource person also encouraged students to look beyond conventional career options and explore emerging opportunities within the financial ecosystem. The session was interactive, allowing students to gain practical insights and clarify their understanding of career possibilities in the field.

Participation

The seminar witnessed enthusiastic participation from 48 BBA students. Students actively listened to the session and engaged with the resource person during the interaction.

The participation of students reflected their growing interest in financial markets, investment-related careers and professional opportunities in the securities-market sector.
