Introduction

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, MAIMS, in association with Red FM, organised TASHANBAAZ, powered by AskSila and SENCO, on 29th September 2026. The event gave students an engaging platform to showcase their talent, creativity, confidence and stage presence.

Inauguration and Felicitation

The event was held under the guidance of Dr. Umesh Chandra Pathak, HOD, and Dr. Shifali Ahuja, and was graced by Prof. Dr. Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Director, MAIMS, and Red FM representative RJ Misha. The programme began with the felicitation of RJ Misha with a memento and a sapling by Prof. Dr. Rajni Malhotra Dhingra, Dr. Umesh Chandra Pathak and Dr. Shifali Ahuja, followed by a group photograph with the faculty members. Their presence added to the enthusiasm of the occasion and gave students an opportunity to interact with a professional from the radio and entertainment industry.

Key Highlights

The Emcee, Himanshu, hosted the programme with great energy. More than 50 students took part in the competition across different categories. The performances included Diya's open mic poetry, Parneet Kaur's Bhangra, Shubhankar's theatre performance and Mitali Pandey's dance, along with several other acts.

Students performed in front of the audience and RJ Misha, who interacted with the participants and added to the energy of the event. The competition encouraged students to present their individual talents with confidence as they competed for a place in the next stage of TASHANBAAZ. The variety of acts kept both the participants and the audience engaged throughout the programme.

Selection for the Finale Round

After the competition round, two students were selected from MAIMS for the finale round of TASHANBAAZ:

- Sahil Verma – B.Tech, 4th year
- Simarjeet Singh – Information Technology, 3rd year

Conclusion

TASHANBAAZ – Red FM X MAIMS was an engaging and energetic event that brought together student talent, entertainment and competition. It gave students a platform to build confidence and experience a professional stage environment in the presence of an industry guest. The institute thanks Red FM, AskSila, SENCO, the faculty members, coordinators, performers and all participating students for making the event memorable.
